

MS 585/8/27/30

Unto the provost ballyeis and remanent members off the council of brechine yer godly wisdomes.

I Janet Mill ane pyor Widow who heas nothing to live by am not able to work for my bread as formerly and now When this cold season is com I have no fewall nor money to fewall or meal and --- ye ar pleased of yor ggodness to allow som small charitie to poor and indigent persons who parents were inhabitants in this place I humblie supplicat yor godly Wisdomes to Comiserat my mein and Low Condition now in this Cold Season and if yor bountie and guidnes allow me some small charitie in this my present straytand yor bumble supplicant shall ever prey for all yor hapines

Janet Mill.