

What difference do parents make?

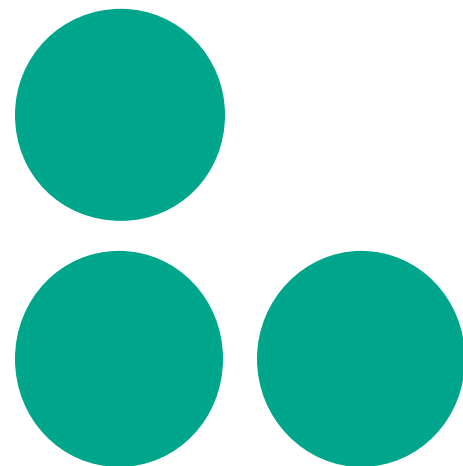

Children spend only 15% of their time in school

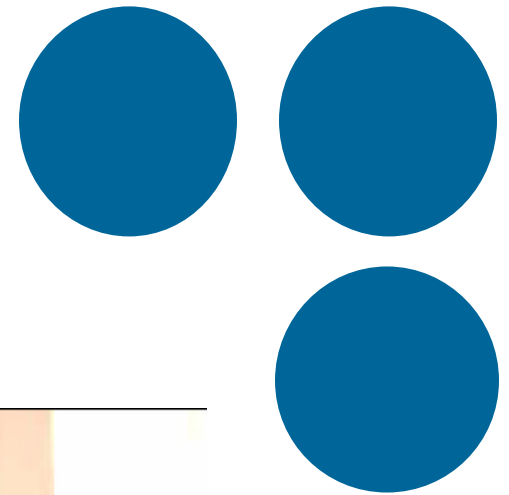

What difference do parents make?

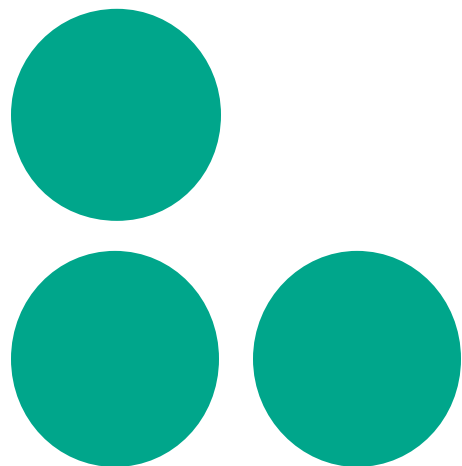

85% of the language we use as adults is in place by the time we are five years old and 50% is in place by the time we are three years old.

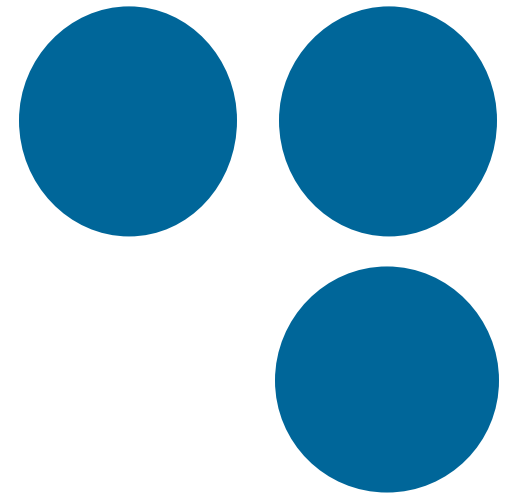

What difference do parents make?

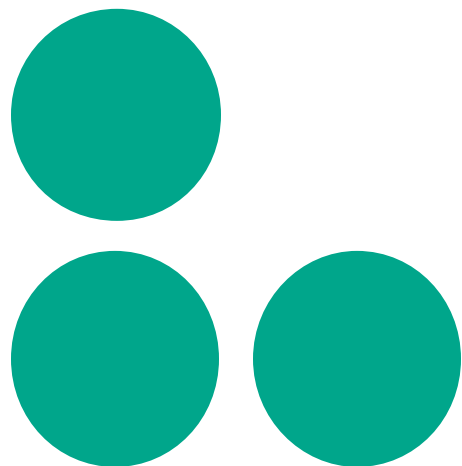

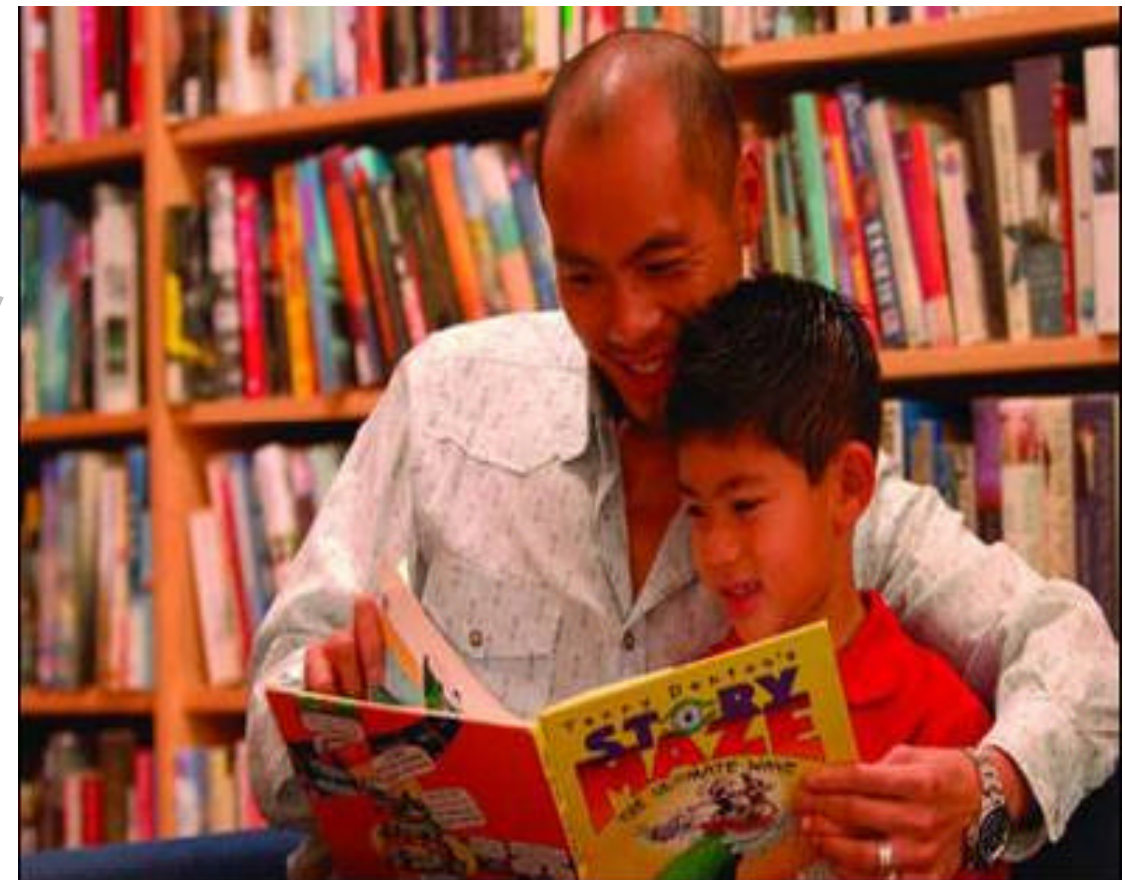

Most differences in achievement by 14 year olds in English, Maths and Science are due to home influences.

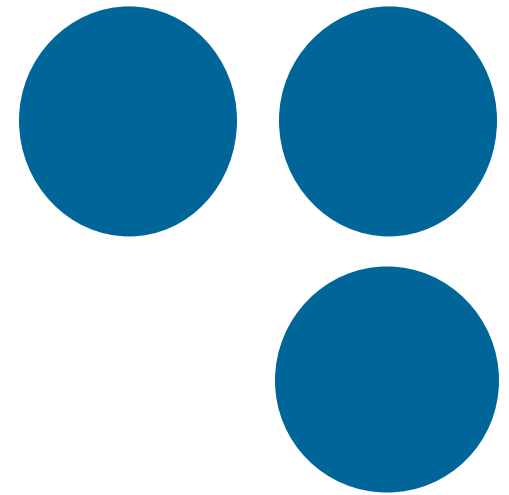

What difference do parents make?

When parents are actively involved in reading with their children at home their children's reading scores improve, on average, by between 12-18 months.

What difference do parents make?

Doing homework regularly through their years at school has roughly the same benefit as an extra year's schooling.

