

Occasional Licence

Local Conditions

A. General

The occasional licence holder must operate within the boundaries of the premises as they are described in the occasional licence and in accordance with the terms of the occasional licence.

B. Display of Notice

The occasional licence holder shall display at all times during the operation of the licence the statutory notice (under-age purchase etc. offences) at each place on the premises where sales of alcohol are made and in a position where it is readily visible to any person seeking to buy alcohol.

C. Access to Licensed Premises (On Sales) by Children and Young Persons

Children under the age of 16 and young persons aged 16 or 17 will only be permitted to access and remain within the part/s of the premises identified in the occasional licence as part/s to which children or young persons are permitted entry.

The Licensing Board will permit children and young persons within Occasional Licences where the Board is satisfied that the event for which the Occasional Licence is to be granted is catering for family activities and recreation involving children and young persons.

In addition the following control measures will require to be in place:-

- (a) Children and young persons are not permitted to be present at or in the immediate vicinity of any bar or bar counter.
- (b) Children and young persons must be accompanied by and kept under the direct supervision of a responsible adult (not less than the age of 18) who must keep proper control of the children at all times.
- (c) The part or parts of the licensed premises where children and young persons are permitted should be free of category A, B or C gaming machines and gaming, unless the gaming is equal chance prize gaming which children and young persons are permitted to participate in under the Gambling Act 2005.
- (d) Gaming, category C and greater gaming machines and cigarette vending machines should not be located in walkway areas, must be sited in a location where their use can be monitored by staff (including volunteer staff) and no children and young persons will be permitted to operate said machines.
- (e) Where televisions or screens for live or pre-recorded entertainment or games are intended to be used in areas where children are permitted, the programmes or video games must be of a type suitable for family and children's viewing.
- (f) Male and female toilets must be readily accessible from the area/s where children are allowed and remain open at all times when children are in the premises.

- (g) Electrical sockets within the part or parts of the premises to which children have access should, when not in use, have plug caps thereon.
- (h) Where open fires, electrical or gas fires or radiators are within part or parts of the premises to which children have access, it is expected that such fires and radiators etc. will be securely guarded or otherwise protected.
- (i) Occasional licence holders must ensure that stringent measures are in place to ensure that neither children nor young people purchase or consume alcohol on the premises (unless such consumption by a young person is permitted in terms of the restricted provisions of Section 105(5) of the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005).
- (j) Occasional licence holders must ensure that stringent measures are taken to prevent the operation of the occasional licence resulting in children and young persons being exposed to strong language, violence or disorder.

D. Premises operating as a restaurant under an occasional licence

Unless the Board allows otherwise, premises operating as a restaurant under an occasional licence will only be able to authorise the sale or supply of alcohol to persons taking table meals for consumption as an ancillary to the meal and no bar counter service should be available.

E. Marquees

- (i) Where the premises operating under an occasional licence include a marquee, any area adjacent to the marquee where patrons are permitted to consume drinks outside, must be clearly defined by suitable fencing.
- (ii) Except in the case of weddings, plastic glasses must be used instead of glass ones, and drinks will be poured from beer bottles etc. into plastic glasses.

- F. The Occasional Licence Holder shall ensure that such measures, as may be necessary, are taken to prohibit the intentional release of airborne launched lanterns, latex balloons and similar free-floating devices containing a naked flame, fuel cell, helium gas or similar elevation mechanism – whether the device is specified as bio-degradable or otherwise in respect of which this licence is granted. Such lanterns or devices are commonly known as Chinese Lanterns, Sky Lanterns, Flying Lanterns, Glowing Lanterns, Night Sky Lanterns, Kongming Lanterns and similar.

For the avoidance of any doubt, static, fixed, hanging or waterborne ornamental or decorative lanterns, balloons or similar devices are not prohibited
