The role of Angus Council

Service 81 is financially supported by Angus Council in order to provide bus services that are deemed socially necessary. Without such a subsidy, these services would not run.

As well as supporting these and other socially necessary services, Angus Council produces timetables for most of the bus services in the region. These are available from a wide range of locations including access offices, libraries, tourist information centres, Arbroath Bus Station and selected Angus Council offices. A comprehensive bus map is published annually and bus stop publicity is produced and maintained to further assist passengers in planning their journey.
