

(NON - VEHICLE CONDITIONS)

ANGUS COUNCIL

CONDITIONS APPLICABLE TO SECOND HAND DEALER'S LICENCES

1. (a) The dealer shall keep or cause to be kept a record of all items bought and sold. The record must be in the form of a properly bound book or electronic record and each article purchased by the dealer must be numbered in the record and have attached a ticket bearing that number. The book or electronic record must be kept or be available for inspection on the premises specified in the licence at all times.
- (b) Records must be preserved for at least two years.
- (c) The record must include the following details - date and time of purchase, price paid for each article, a full description of each article, the name and address of the seller, date and time of sale by dealer, description of the article at the time of sale by the dealer and the name and address of the purchaser.
- (d) The dealer shall not dispose of any item of his stock-in-trade until the expiry of 48 hours (excluding any time on Saturdays and Sundays) after he acquires it.
2. The dealer shall not (a) receive or take goods in pledge; except as provided for in condition 4 or (b) carry on business as a retailer of excisable liquor.
3. The dealer shall not receive or take a pawn ticket issued by a pawnbroker except if the ticket was issued by the dealer for any article which has been pawned, or negotiate in any manner with the holder of any such pawn ticket, or any person on his behalf, for the purchase of any article to which the pawn ticket refers.
4. The dealer shall not carry on business as a second hand dealer in any premises in which the business of a pawnbroker is carried on or in any other premises having access to such premises. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the dealer shall be permitted to carry on business as a second hand dealer in premises in which business of a pawnbroker is carried on or in any other premises having access to such premises so long as the pawnbroking business is appropriately licensed to do so by the Office of Fair Trading under Consumer Credit Act 1974.
5. The dealer shall not keep or permit to be kept any smelting pot or implement for smelting, altering or defacing gold, silver, lead or other metals.
6. The dealer shall not dispose of goods or articles to, or acquire goods or articles from, any person who appears to be under sixteen years of age, whether such person is acting on their own behalf or on behalf of another person.
7. The dealer shall keep the records mentioned in Conditions 1 available for inspection by:-
 - (a) any police constable or any authorised officer of the licensing authority; and
 - (b) the Director of Trading Standards or his officers at all times.

8. The dealer shall not in any way alter, erase or deface the licence.

9. The dealer shall store the goods and articles purchased in the course of his dealings only on the premises specified in the licence or on other premises approved by the licensing authority from time to time.

These are the conditions referred to in second-hand dealer's licence No. XX issued to XXXXXXXX in respect of premises at XX.
