Angus Council Communities Planning & Place and Scottish Fire and Rescue Service will also be consulted on the application.

PUBLICATION BY THE APPLICANT

On submitting the application to the Council the applicant is required to display the enclosed "NOTICE OF DISPLAY" giving intimation of the application at or near the premises so that it may be conveniently read. The notice must state:-

Where the applicant is unable to display the notice at or near the premises because of a lack of access or other rights, the applicant must take reasonable steps to acquire those rights. If, after attempting to acquire such rights, it is still not possible for the applicant to display the notice at or near the premises, this should be declared in the appropriate section of the application form. The steps taken in attempting to acquire the rights should also be specified on the form.

Any objection or representation which is properly made and received within the appropriate timescale will be copied to the applicant who will be given an opportunity to express views on it.

The Civic Licensing Committee will usually consider the application together with objections and representations which have been properly received, at one of its regular meetings.
